Rodeo Update

We have a site (grassy lots at the north end of Broadway) and cones. Still needed are pole vault standards and a field liner (“chalker”).

Road Captain's Report

We will ride to Nauvoo on June 13, weather permitting, departing from the church at 10:00 a.m. Lyle Lascelles will be out of town on July 11 for the ride to Hennepin, so Roger Prater will serve as road captain in his stead.

Promotion Report

Don reminded the group that promotion is publicity—advertising in order to attract other people. He encouraged members to keep copies of the F.A.I.T.H. Riders brochure and cards to give to interested persons.

Outreach Report

Lyle Lascelles and Don Full presented information about the Adopt-A-Highway program. Participating groups must clean their designated 2-mile portion of highway four times per year. IDOT will furnish trash bags and vests and will pick up filled bags. A sign with the group name will be placed along the highway. Jay Hance moved that we participate in this program, Patsy Walters seconded the motion; motion was approved.

Website Report

Debbie Webber has renewed the domain name and is checking to see that it is in effect.

Merchandise Orders

Those wishing to order items should contact Don Full.

New Business

Don Full reported that he is completing the paperwork for our participation in Oktoberfest on September 11 (parade) and September 12 (booth).

Chaplain Jay Hance closed the meeting with prayer; the meeting adjourned at 8:05 p.m.
